I'm in my 50s. For nearly all of my life, people told me that computers and (later) AI would eliminate the drudgery of most work, allowing all of us to pursue creative things like art, music, and writing. Now these AI snake-oil salesmen are eliminating artists, musicians, and writers so we can all do what, exactly? And they seem to not be considering that people need jobs so they can afford products. Just 80s dystopian sci-fi shit
